

Private International Law and International Trade Law I.

For law students in full time education program (JNA, JNASZ)

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Course code: NMJEN0XN/SZ

Institute:	Department of Private International Law
Responsible person:	Mátyás Császár, István Csongor Nagy
Lecturer:	Mátyás Császár, István Csongor Nagy
Course type:	Lecture
Number of contact hours per week:	2
Assessment:	KO (kollokvium)
Prerequisites:	Civil Law IV.
Co-requisites:	European Law II.
Semester:	autumn
Credit points:	3

Course description:

- The notion and subject-matter of private international law and its location in the legal system;
- The history of private international law;
- The notion, types and structure of conflict rules; connecting factors;
- Characterization; renvoi;
- Determining the content of foreign law; exceptions to the application of foreign law; public policy (ordre public);
- The status of persons (natural persons, legal persons, the state);
- The law governing property law (in rem) relationships; the conflict rules of intellectual property law;
- The law governing contracts; party autonomy;
- The law governing contracts in the absence of a choice of law by the parties;
- The law governing consumer and employment contracts;
- The law governing delicts (torts);
- The law governing inheritance and family law relationships;
- The rules of jurisdiction;
- Recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments;
- Arbitration;
- European Union rules on international procedural law.

Essential Reading:

- The material of lectures;
- Nagy Csongor István: Nemzetközi magánjog (2nd edition, HVG-ORAC, Budapest, 2012.)