

Private International Law and International Trade Law II.

For law students in correspondent education program (Kecskemét) - JLK

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Course code: NMJEK2XL

Institute:	Department of Private International Law
Responsible person:	Ödön Harka
Lecturer:	Ödön Harka
Course type:	Lecture
Number of contact hours per week:	11 / semester
Assessment:	comprehensive exam
Prerequisites:	Private International Law and International Trade Law I.
Co-requisites:
Semester:	spring
Credit points:	3
Course description:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- The notion and subject-matter of international trade law; public and private law provisions;- The law of international trade in goods (GATT);- The rules of international trade in services (GATS);- The rules on agriculture, dumping, intellectual property and trade related investment measures;- Dispute resolution in the WTO system;- The law of foreign investments; bilateral investment treaties (BIT);- Settlement of international investment disputes on the basis of the Washington Convention;- Unification of law; customs and usages; INCOTERMS;- Vienna Convention on the international sale of goods;- Cross-border mergers and acquisitions; share purchase agreements;- Contracts for work, license agreements, know-how, franchising, leasing;- Distribution (resale) agreements and commercial agency agreements;- International treaties on carriage of goods;- The law of international payments (bill of exchange, collection, letter of credit, bank guarantee, factoring);- The rules of electronic commerce.
Essential Reading:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- The material of lectures;- Bánrévy Gábor: A Nemzetközi gazdasági kapcsolatok joga (Szent István Társulat, Budapest, 2007.);- Vörös Imre: A nemzetközi gazdasági kapcsolatok joga I-III. (Krim Bt., Budapest, 2003.).	